'TIS THE OLD TIME RELIGION."

BLESSED MEETING BEING HELD AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS AND MANY
WANTING TO BE SAVED.

NOTES OF THE REVIVAL.

"It is the old time religion" that Rev. Pat Davis and Rev. B. M. Currie are stirring up in Cloverport and it is leaking out of every christian's heart filled with love and prayer for the sinners. The revival at the Methodist church is becoming greater every day and night and the account of it is as follows: The congregations at the afternoon services are larger than they have ever been in any previous revivals. But Bro. Davis says they are not for women only. He wants more men and more sinners to attend.

Bro. Davis loves children, and does not believe in calling them "lids." He has organized a children's choir, and their sweet little voices ring clearly and softly through the auditorium.

The Ladies Reading Club and the Girls' club will not meet again until the revival closes. The young people postpone their skating parties until after church services. Bro. Davis and Bro. Currie heartily appreciate the co-operation that is being given them.

The Presbyterians attend the revival regularly and are taking much interest in the services. It is regretted Bro. Graves is not here.

Rev. and Mrs. James Lewis are in daily attendance at the meetings. Bro. Lewis called in the night service at the Baptist church Sunday for the revival.

Miss Ida White, the organist, has been using the piano as it is preferred by the majority for revival singing. Miss Eva May leads the singing and is as faithful as Miss White. But she had to get some one else to take her place before the service closed Sunday night, which was willingly done by Miss Ray Heyer.

Sam J. Baker, of Patesville, attended the afternoon service Saturday. Mr. Baker said that all of us have religion, but many of us did not have enough of it. People from the surrounding towns are attending the services.

The services are 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:30 o'clock at night.

Eli Dean Near Death.

Eli Dean is ill of consumption at the home of his father, Ben Dean, who is one of the most respected and best loved of the old colored men in the county. Eli was just recently converted, joined the Baptist church and was baptized. His sister, Bettie and her husband, John Martin arrived from Shelbyville Friday night to see him.

George A. Dean was here from Chicago to see him about a week ago.

LATER—information has just been received that Eli Dean, colored, passed away at the home of his father, Ben J. Dean, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Weatherholt have moved to the Weatherholt home place in Breckenridge addition on river street.

GREAT ROAD MAN MUST HAVE THE NEWS.

Chas. Bolher came Saturday to renew his subscription for the News. He said ever since it had expired, there was something lacking about his home. When he told Mrs. Bolher that he would get the News for another year as soon as he came up town, she said, "I wish you would." There are two things Mr. Bolher likes and takes money to get both; they are the News and good roads.

ary Service Sunday In This City.

At the Baptist church Sunday morning a splendid missionary service was held and $58 was subscribed for the State, Home and Foreign Missions. This is to be paid the fourth Sunday when Rev. Lewis expects to make the payment as high as $60.

The service was a most excellent one, spiritual and beneficial to all present. Little Miss Louise Lewis and Adis Kramee sang a duet.

Mrs. Procter Keith will take charge of the Sunbeams society for Mrs. Heyser for a few months.

Little Arm Broken.

Louise Reid, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Reid fell from a chair Friday and broke her right arm. They took her to a doctor immediately and had it set.

DIES SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Morris, Sister of Miss
Martha Miller, Undergoes
Fatal Operation.

Virginia Miller Morris, wife of Mr. C. E. Morris, died April 3, forty-eight hours after undergoing an operation in an infirmary at Baton Rouge, La. She was just twenty-one years of age and was married to Mr. Morris a little over a month ago in Owensboro.

The remains were brought to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Sherell, at Greenville, Ky., and the funeral took place at the Baptist church here. It was the largest attended funeral ever held at that place. A wagon load of flowers was sent to the grave of the beloved young woman.

Besides her husband Mrs. Morris is survived by one sister, Miss Martha Miller, of this city, and four brothers, Hollie, Duell, George and Thomas Miller.

Mrs. Selby McCracken is making her plans to visit Mrs. J. O. Whit in Cincinnati this summer.

BEAUTIFYING CLOVERPORT.

PEOPLE ARE CLEANING THEIR FRONT AND BACK YARDS.

MAKING ROOM FOR THE BEAUTIES
OF SPRING IN THIS CITY.

LOCAL PRIDE EVIDENT.

Spring is here, dressed up in all its beauty! The leaves are coming out in their fresh coats of green, the flowers are beginning to take their places in dresses of gay colors and the four leaf clovers are jumping up through the blue grass. But as Mrs. Newsom says, how the dirt does grin back at you!

However, there is some raking, cleaning and painting going on in Cloverport and there will be more of such work after the meeting closes. The people are busy trying to clean up their lawns and yards, after which they intend to convert their homes into beauty spots and make their yards and streets more attractive.

Mrs. George Jordan has had her house and yard beautifully cleaned and fixed up for the summer season. Her lawn front is a pleasure to passers by who never fail to admire its well kept condition.

Dr. R. L. Newsom is splendidly improving his property in the West End, which is occupied by Mrs. Viola Jackson. He is having it painted and repaired.

The furnishings in the Bank of Cloverport have been revamped during the last week. Sometime ago spring cleaning was done at the Breckenridge Bank.

Many residents are sowing grass seed and are also planting flowers. No finer rose bushes can be found in Hardinsburg, which is known for its exquisite roses, than are budding in the yard of Mrs. Mattie Collins in the West End. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bolher are having their residence in the West End painted.

Mr. Sam Brown has had the painter at work at the Home Bakery for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burns improved their side walk Saturday by having the weeds pulled up that were along the fence.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tousey have gotten the brick for a pavement to be laid in front of their residence on railroad street.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Popham has been painted and handsomely improved this spring.

"A clean home is an attractive home. A clean city is an attractive city; and as good citizens we should all work together to keep our city clean and in this way make it more attractive, and best of all, a more healthy city in which to live."

"An important feature in bringing about ideal conditions is earnest, co-operative neighborhood work. This is best accomplished by the people banding together in voluntary associations for this purpose. In this way there is stirred up a feeling of local pride that always brings good results. It tends to carry the housewife's idea of home cleaning into the back yards and vacant lots. It also makes people more careful about keeping their own premises neat and tidy."

Mr. Dixon Moves.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Dixon will leave this week for his native home, LaRue county. His health has been poor all winter and he thinks the change will benefit him. Before leaving Breckenridge he entered his name on the News list.

Blessed With Daughters.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hawkins, a little daughter has made her arrival, and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Landers was also blessed with a little girl.

They were settling up with Barney Squires for their last lot of 1906 tobacco. It brought $9.50 and $6.50 and there were 220,000 pounds. The farmers were well satisfied with the price.

Announcement

Having been asked by some of the stockholders of the Breckenridge Fair Association, if I would serve as a director, if elected, I desire to make the following announcement:

BEING breeders of thoroughbred cattle and hogs and otherwise actively engaged in agricultural pursuits, having about as much invested in the fair and being as large exhibitors as any other individuals, my father and I are naturally very much interested in the success of our county fair. For several years I have been sent to the International Live Stock Exhibition, to many of the State Fairs and to the various County Fairs of our own state by the Agricultural Department of the State of Kentucky. As there are nine directors to be elected, and as this is a business matter in which I am interested, and is in line with my work as a member of the State Board of Agriculture, I will accept a place on the Board of Directors and serve the interests of the stockholders of the Association to the best of my ability.

Very respectfully,

W. R. Moorman, Jr.

Ward King's Connection With Move For Better Highways.

BEGAN CAMPAIGNING IN 1902

Split Log Drag Work Started In 1896. Rise of the Device to Fame Marked by Several Opportune Accidents. How Railroads Took It Up.

[Copyright, 1906, by D. Ward King.] In closing this series of articles I am requested to write a brief history of my connection with the movement for better roads. The "road problem" began to engage my interest very soon after I came to Missouri, which was in 1879.

The split log drag work, which started in 1896, received a certain amount of notice from the public in 1898 or 1899, but nothing was done by me publicly until December, 1901, when I addressed the state meeting of the Missouri Good Roads association at Chillicothe.

My campaigning commenced in April or May, 1902, under the direction of our state board of agriculture, and I have worked with it more or less ever since. In the fall of 1902, when the board opened its regular series of institutes, I addressed them, and in the next few years I visited Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Nebraska, traveling for months in the employ of the various states.

In spite of the fact that I live within thirty miles of Iowa and Kansas, I was for years haled in my efforts to start the road drag movement there because of the lack of a central authority in those states, a weakness which has since been remedied.

Now, Wallace's Farmer of Des Moines, Ia., had given considerable space to the King drag, so I wrote to the editor, asking advice. My letter to him was brought to the notice of General Manager Ashton of the Chicago and Northwestern, leading to the special train campaign during the month of the Iowa lines in the spring of 1905. The Burlington carried on a similar campaign the same fall, and in the following winter we had Mr. Wallace's letter to me, in which he expressed his pleasure of seeing a road drag law passed by the Iowa legislature.

The rise of the road drag to fame has been marked by a number of fortunate accidents, some of which have had an influence on the outcome. In fact, as I stated in a previous article, the inception of the King drag system was itself largely accidental. And the success of my letter to Mr. Wallace was another instance, being due to the accidental coming together of Mr. Wallace and Ashton in a Des Moines bank, they never having met before.

At the bank the conversation drifted to cars, and Mr. Ashton, who had Mr. Wallace's office to see some fine samples. By chance my letter lay open on the desk as they passed, and Mr. Wallace remarked, "There, Mr. Ashton, is a matter in which you and all railroad men ought to take an active interest."

Mr. Ashton gave heed and began an investigation which ended in my engagement to make the tour of his road in April.

Another such occurrence which connects later on with the one just related had its beginning when the brother of our rural free delivery carrier visited him in 1902. This brother accompanied our carrier over the rural mail route and saw what the King drag was doing. He returned to his farm home near Sac City, Ia., built a drag and made a road which became the talk of the vicinity. The township authorities decided to experiment with the new method, built drags, hired men and teams, made a close record of expenses and noted results.

It happens that Sac City is a Chicago and Northwestern town, and when Mr. Ashton visited there to investigate I was shown the roads and the records. The showing satisfied him, and he at once wired me to visit his office at the first opportunity. It is not clear that the writing of this telegraphic message began on the day that the visitor from Sac City journeyed over our rural route.

Not long after this railroad work in Iowa the Alton in Illinois heard of the Santa Fe in Kansas adopting the same general plan of campaign, and all three of these states have since fallen into line by enacting road drag laws.

These campaigns by the railroads and the publication by the Saturday Evening Post of an article, both of which subject gave the movement great publicity, and the news has traveled around the world. Papers in Canada, Australia and England have been heard from. Just now I was shown a letter stating the Missouri Road Drag Bulletin had been translated into Spanish. I have reason to believe the King drag is in use in every state of the Union, and I have the names of more than a dozen Canadians who are dragging the roads.

Moreover, the people are showing an appreciation of the drag and a desire to know more about it by clearing their presence at Chautauques and good road meetings so constantly that I have little time for other business. My Chautauque dates for 1908 are in request already, indicating the growing interest of the public.

Last but not least, the United States office of public roads at Washington has recognized the importance of the split log drag, and Director Page has asked me to write a bulletin for the government. This bulletin will go more into detail than anything I have heretofore written and will contain new pictures as well as a cut of an implement to be used supplementary to the drag. This implement, although in use on my road for years, I have not before introduced to public notice.

That languid, lifeless feeling that comes with spring and early summer, can be quickly changed to a feeling of buoyancy and energy by the judicious use of Dr. Shop's Restorative.

The Restorative is a genuine tonic to feed, run-down nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The season of winter nearly always leads to sluggish bowels, and to sluggish circulation in general. The customary lack of exercise and outdoor air ties up the liver, stagnates the kidneys, and often weakens the heart's action. Use Dr. Shop's Restorative a few weeks and all will be changed. A few days' rest will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold by all dealers.

SOUND WAVES.

The Way They Are Deflected by Atmospheric Causes.

One of Uncle Sam's scientists at Washington gives an interesting explanation of the action of the wind in preventing the spread of sound toward the direction from which the wind comes.

It is, he claims, not the wind, as such, that prevents sound from traveling against it, but differences in the strength of the wind. If, for instance, the wind is stronger at the bottom or stronger at one side, its effect will be to tilt the sound waves in one direction or another.

Differences of temperature in the air also cause deflection of the waves of sound. Other atmospheric causes exist which deflect sound from a straight course drag prevent it from going as far in certain directions as it may have been expected to go.

Some of the sirens in this country, says the scientist, produce sounds which ought theoretically to be audible at a distance of 1,500 miles, but, in fact, the authorities are satisfied if they are heard only two miles away. The reason for the discrepancy between calculation and experiment was probably atmospheric deflection of the sound.—Minneapolis Journal.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Long Lines Features of Smart Costumes—Fichu Effects and Drapery. Long lines are the most important feature of the fashionable costume, and to obtain such effects many resources are employed. Coat effects, tunics that hang gracefully on the figure from shoulder to a point low on the skirt, tunics with long hanging points, sashes, tails and all the devices known to the dressmakers are brought into use.

Now that fichu effects and shawl draperies are so much in vogue one of those old fashioned fringed, white embroidered china silk shawls would be useful to its owner. It could first be dyed to match the color of the gown and arranged as a tunic on a frock.

The shirt waist illustrated is made

With long or three-quarter sleeves and without or with a lining. To arrange the fullness of a shirt waist at the waist line some women put a narrow linen tape through a facing and draw in the fullness after the skirt is on, adjusting it in the right place.

The Underdog.

Underdogism does not arise wholly from condition (you find underdogs in the very seats of the mighty), but from a winsome quality of mind which is inherent. You may know the underdog by a certain negative attitude, an absence of assertion, a denial of superiority, a smiling air of seeing the humor of the situation, a doll hint of a wink at his own discomfiture. Some of them, it is true, do make the mistake of trying to be something else. They put on an imposing front and in a momentary flood of favor and fortune pose as dogs rampant. Yet even in that lofty attitude the tail may be observed between the legs.—Atlantic.

Modern Tiled Roads.

It somewhat appears that our whole country is soon to be made available through roads constructed by what some one has dubbed the petrolyth process, says the Los Angeles Times. In riding over a country road a chauffeur was heard to remark, "I have driven over all kinds of roads, but that sausage machine roller beats down the best surface I ever traveled over." Judging by the mileage now under construction by this process, it would appear that the general public heartily indorses the opinion of the driver quoted.

DOES NO HARM

BUT MUCH GOOD.

Recipe Is Easily Prepared At

Small Cost, And Many Swear By It.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from our home druggists.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

THE LAST MAN SHAVED.

An Explanation by the Barber That Did Not Quiet His Nerves.

There were five of us hunting and fishing in the Greenland bush when one rainy day a stranger appeared. He said he was a trapper hunter, and no one of us had been shaved for a fortnight we gave him half a day's work.

About four hours after he had left us a man's face came to the door and the leader inquired if we had seen a tall, roughly dressed man pass that way. We told him of the barber, and he looked from man to man and exclaimed:

"Good gracious, but you are all freshly shaved!"

"Yes, we gave the barber a job."

"And he shaved each one of you?"

"He did and he will."

"Boys, do you hear that?" shouted the man as he turned to his companions.

"What of it?" asked one of our party.

"Why, he went insane yesterday and cut a man's throat in his barber's chair over at Unadilla, and we're after him to put him in an asylum."

They rode away at a gallop and next morning returned to our camp with the man, who had been captured after a hard fight and was tied on his horse. He seemed to remember us when he was given a drink of water, and as he handed the cup back he quietly observed:

"I say, gentlemen, please excuse me. I meant to finish off the last man who got shaved, but I got to thinking of something else, and it slipped my mind."—Cape Times.

The Best Cure For Colic In Horses.

Colic is usually the result of indigestion, caused by sudden changes of feed, too long fasting, food given when the horse is exhausted, new hay or grain, or large quantities of green feed.

Every horse owner should keep Sloan's Sure Colic Cure in his stable as an insurance against colic, for an attack of colic is liable to come on without warning at any time, and Sloan's Sure Colic Cures the safest and best remedy to use. It acts instantly on the stomach and bowels and can be given by a woman or a child.

"I cured a horse with colic that had been treated by a good veterinary surgeon for forty-eight hours," writes Mr. R. A. Pierce, of Cohutta Springs, Ga. "The horse was about dead and the owner said he wouldn't take five cents for him. I gave him three doses of Sloan's Sure Colic Cure and he was up and eating hay in ten minutes."

Mr. Farber Better.

John Farber, who was shot by John Beavin, continues to improve. During his illness he has been the recipient of much kindness from his friends, who have visited him and sent him flowers. "One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the spirit of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm-hearted wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by Severs Drug Co.

INSTITUTE REPORT

Beneficial Meeting Held at Irvington by Christian Workers.

Good Papers Read. Mr. Vaughn and Other Speakers There.

INCLEMENT WEATHER PREVAILS

The Sunday School Institute held at Irvington, April 8th opened with the song, "I Love to Tell the Story".
Prayer by Rev. F. H. Farrington.
Song—Onward Christian Soldiers, after which Rev. Farrington quoted several passages that were very helpful.
Prayer by Rev. Ben F. Wilson.
Work in the elementary grades by Mrs. W. J. Pigg was very practical and helpful, if put into practice by schools in this county would make them more efficient and thorough.
Mr. W. G. Vaughn addressed the Institute and emphasized the importance of memorizing scripture.
Song by congregation.
Institute adjourned until 1 p. m. with prayer by Rev. Farrington.
Afternoon session opened with a song followed by Rev. Farrington who also discussed "Teachers Training". He said there are four things every teacher should know.
First—He should know something.
Second—He should see something.
Third—He should be something.
Fourth—He should do something.
S. C. Dowell not responding. Mr. Vaughn said on the topic "The Object of the Teachers Meeting" the first object should be to study the manner of presenting the lesson.
Rev. E. W. Graves on "Education for Salvation to Service," said he thought the teacher should be educated to be the best and most efficient soul winner.
Mrs. Pigg gave her class drill which showed thorough training by their efficient teacher; after which the secretary of the class presented each pupil with a beautiful ribbon book mark, made of the rainbow colors.
Prof. Jos. H. Pile being absent, Mr. Vaughn made a short talk on "Visitation".
Mrs. S. P. Parks spoke on "Home Department and Cradle Roll"; asked how may we reach the members who live in the country? To which Mrs. Pigg replied by personal letter, which would be well for each school to practice.
Mr. Vaughn said each school should be graded and have its work systematically arranged.
Song—"Stand Up for Jesus."
Rev. B. F. Wilson in speaking on "Temperance and Mission" said the Sunday School lesson taught without Temperance and Mission is not the word of God.
The following superintendents were appointed. Organization, Mrs. J. R. Wimp, Irvington, Ky.; Intermediate grated: Miss Ada B. Henderson, Webster, Ky. Institute adjourned with song Praise God, followed by benediction.

The evening session opened with song "Lead Kindly Light."
Devotional by Rev. B. F. Wilson.
Mr. Vaughn made a very practical and impressive talk on "The Awakening."
Owing to the rain few workers were present, but all were very enthusiastic and seemed to thoroughly enjoy the work.

LOVELY CHARACTER.

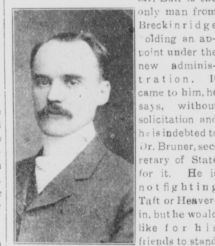

Mrs. Whitlock, Formerly of Hawesville Dies in Indianapolis.

Mrs. F. B. Whitlock, formerly Miss Anna Hennen, daughter of Mrs. M. H. Hennen, of this city, died at her home in Indianapolis yesterday morning, after an illness of several weeks, of Bright's disease. The remains will arrive in Hawesville to-night (Thursday) and the interment will occur in the Hawesville Cemetery at 10 a. m. Friday.
Mrs. Whitlock was married several years ago, and the husband and a little four-year-old daughter survive. The deceased was a lovely character, a true Christian lady, and was most popular with all her old home people, who grieve her departure.—Hancock Clarion.

The Noted Hamilton Cultivator.

IMPROVED RIDING CULTIVATOR

No. 2, with Square Steel Beams and Four Shovels. Our riding cultivators like all others of our make have the adjustable arch and adjustable standards, but in addition to these they have another feature that has helped more than any other to increase their popularity, that is the foot treadle guide for controlling the beams. By a direct forward pressure of the foot on the treadles attached to the beams the operator can instantly make the beams run to the right or the left at will, enabling him to doze crooked corn with ease. The levers, one on either side of the seat, within easy reach of the operator, enable him to control the depth of the furrow or to lift the beams out of the ground entirely. These features of course make the cultivator very easy to control and together with the low seat located so the operator can see the whole implement, make it the most cultivator of the kind to be found anywhere. Spring Teeth or Eagle Claw Attachments can be used on this cultivator in place of the four shovel attachments, if desired.

IRVINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOL CLOSES

Prof. Barnes and Prof. Macy Do Commendable Work.

PRIZES AWARDED TO PUPILS.

Irvington, Ky. Ap. 14 (—Spec. 1—)

The Irvington public school closed their day at noon. Notwithstanding the difficulties with which it has been beset, the work of the school has been a success.

P. of Barnes, who succeeded to the principalship six weeks ago has, by his faithful work and wise management, won the favor of both pupils and patrons.

Prof. Macy in charge of the lower grades, has likewise done commendable work. The progress of the little folks under his care has been most gratifying to all concerned. Just before the closing hour the pupils were given a light treat by the teachers in token of their appreciation of the good work done.

In the second, third and fourth grades, small little gifts were awarded to those who had merited the highest number of head marks.

In the second grade, Janious Graves ranked highest with Janious Dowell and T. J. Collins second.

In the third grade, Maurine Ashcraft stood highest with Julia Dowell next, and in the fourth grade Ruth Marshall stood highest with Alvin Rice next.

Fiscal Court Notes.

By the Hardinsburg correspondent.

From the acts and allowances of the Fiscal Court in session at the county seat Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week we note the following:

Justices T. M. Bates, John O'Reilly, H. G. Vessels, C. H. Drury, J. T. McCamish and Frank Ruppert were in attendance every day. Judge H. D. Moorman presided and Gus Brown was there every watchful of the people's money, ready to oppose everything he thought illegal or too costly.

The court is one of which any county might be proud. They are liberal, fair, progressive, public spirited, honest men who serve with credit, reflecting the good judgement of the voters who placed them in office. Politically they are divided, there being six Democrats (counting Judge Moorman and Gus Brown) and two republicans, but they stand as so many loyal brothers, all supporting what they think is right and all alike, working to vote down an extravagant claim and attempting to protect the people who they serve.

The county poor house is reported well kept in sanitary conditions and the inmates a contented well fed lot of people.

The court approved the good conditions of the public property belonging to the county and noted with pleasure the needed improvement made the last year.

New locks were ordered for the Court House doors and janitor ordered to close said doors at 6 p. m. and keep them locked until 6 a. m. No persons to be admitted to the court house at night except when accompanied by an official.

Lee walls was elected pauper commissioner for two years.

Dr. J. C. Sutton was elected pauper physician for one year.

Columbus Davis was elected poor house keeper for one year.

The following claims were allowed for sheep killed by dogs: Julius Dutschke, $12; Tice Miller, $6; E. Driskell, $15.

The court said, the settlement this year is a most excellent one, being perfectly balanced and thoroughly accurate. Each year we observe the system of county government becoming more perfect in its details. The settlement of 1906 showed 881 delinquents; settlement of 1907 showed 616, and 1908 shows 439, and during the present administration, delinquent taxes have been required to be worked out on the roads thereby losing nothing to the county.

We note that the assessed valuation of property is annually increasing and that the county has this year the best prepared Assessors book it has ever had, most accurate and convenient in every respect. The assessment seems to have been closer than usual. Two bonds were retired in the railroad assessed district, etc.

On account of its cracking after completion the court refused to pay for the abatement for the Eredleigh Mill bridge. It is to be specially examined and report made on its condition at the next meeting of the court.

The county levy was made the same as last year, 18 cents on the $100, 7 cents goes to the General Expense fund, 5 cents to the Sinking Fund, and 6 cents to the Pauper fund. The poll tax of $1.50 is divided as before, 50 cents to the Road Fund and $1.00 to the General Expense Fund.

The levy for Road purposes is 20 cents and for Bridges 5 cents, the same as last year.

The delinquents are apportioned as follows among the Magisterial districts: Hardinsburg, 68; Cloverport, 110; Union Star, 72; Havesville, 53; Hudson, 51; McDaniel, 50.

The Road Supervisor is directed to cause all poll tax delinquents to work out their taxes on the roads.

WHEN THE EARTH DIES

And When Our Other Planets and Our Sun Are Also Dead.

STILL THE HEAVENS BLAZE.

The Infinite Space Shall Always Be Filled With Suns and Worlds and Souls. For in Eternity There Can Be Neither Beginning Nor End.

The earth was dead. The other planets had died, one after the other.
The sun was extinct, but the stars
were still twinkling. There shall always be stars and worlds.

In the immeasurable eternity time,
which is essentially relative, is determined by the movement of each of these worlds, and in each world it is felt according to the personal sensations of their inhabitants. Each globe measures its proper period of time.
The years of the earth are not those of Neptune. Neptune's year equals 104
of ours and is no longer in the absolute.
There exists no proper common measure of time and eternity.

In the empty space time does not exist. There are no years, no centuries, but there is a way of measuring time upon a revolving globe. Without periodical movement one cannot have a conception of time whatsoever.

The earth existed no longer; neither did its celestial neighbor, Mars, nor beautiful Venus, nor the gigantic Jap-ter, nor the strange universe of Saturn, its rings gone, nor the slow planets Uranus and Neptune, nor even the sublime sun, whose rays had for centuries made fertile the celestial corpuscles suspended in its light.

The sun was a black globe, and the planets were other black globes, and this invisible system continued to course in the starry immensity at the bosom
of the cold darkness of space.

From the viewpoint of all life these worlds were dead, existed no longer.
They survived their antique history as do the ruins of the desert cities of As-syrin, while the archaeologist discovers in the desert and revolved dark in the invisible and unknown. Everything was covered with ice, 273 degrees below zero.

No genius, no sage, could have brought back the days of old when earth sailed through space bathed in light, its beautiful green meadows
awakening with the rays of the morning sun, its rivers flowing like serpents through the green fields, its woods reverberating with the songs of the birds, its forests enveloped in majestic mystery.

Then all this happiness seemed eternal. What has become of the mornings and evenings, the flowers and the lovers, the harmonies of nature, the beauties and the dreams? All have disappeared.

The earth is dead, all the planets are dead, the sun is extinct. The solar system gone. Time itself even annihilated.

Time flows into eternity, but eternity
remains, and time revives.
Before the earth existed, during a whole eternity, there were suns and worlds, humanities filled with life and activity as we see today. For millions and millions of years our earth did not exist, but the universe was no less brilliant. After our time it will be as before. Our epoch is of no importance.

The dead and cold earth carried in itself, however, an engine that set its movement around the sun, which energy transformed into heat would suffice to melt the whole globe, to reduce
it to vapor and to locate new habitable worlds. It is, it is true, would not last long, for if this movement around the sun should suddenly cease the earth would fall into the void and cease to exist. It would rush toward it with ever increasing speed and would reach
it in sixty-five days.

When the earth is dead, other worlds

This woman says she was saved
from an operation by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lea V. Henry, of Norristown, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:
"I suffered untold misery from female troubles. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death."
"One day I read how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I decided to try it. Before I had taken the first bottle I was better, and now I am entirely cured."

Every woman suffering with any female trouble should take Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills,
and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pain, pale complexion, head-aching, nervousness, indigestion, distension, dizziness or nervous prostration.

Why don't you try it?

women to write her for advice.

lights.

And these new universes will disappear in their turn, to be followed by still others. At a certain time all the stars of the Milky Way shall run toward one center of gravity and form an immense formidable sun, center of a system, whose enormous worlds
shall be somewhat populated by beings living in a temperature which would seem red hot to us.

The infinite space shall always be filled with worlds and transients and suns, and eternity shall last forever,

TEST IN HOUSEKEEPING.

Charles Barnard's Novel Undertaking
at His Home in Darien, Conn.

Charles Barnard, the writer and lecturer, who is devoting his time to conducting a "housekeeping experiment station" in Darien, Conn., talked about his institution the other day as follows:

"A housekeeping experiment station is a new idea. An agricultural station must have barns, field laboratories and greenhouses. It is wholly different with a housekeeping station. All that is needed is a good country house.
It should not be a city house, full of apartment, because the experiments of housekeepers are conducted for the benefit of all housewives, whether they live out of town or on farms and without gas or electric light."

"The aim of a housekeeping experiment station should be to make experiments on a housekeeping scale with ordinary appliances and under normal household conditions. This is precisely what is done. No far as known it is the first housekeeping experiment station in the world to open its doors to the housewives of this country."

Experiments are performed in schools and colleges in household economics, notably at the Teachers' college in New York, but these are schools. The new station is a home, occupied and used as such, and also used as a place where experts in the art of housekeeping are conducted for the benefit of any householder who wants to know how and why certain things done in housework can best be done."

For nearly two years Mr. Barnard used his home as a place where he could test new housekeeping appliances, new methods, and the necessity of the housekeeper. For the last year, however, he has applied to the station
from every part of the country, manufacturers of household appliances send new inventions to be tested. The station is tested, town officials ask for information in regard to the best method of lighting stoves, and architects have been consulted in regard to laying out and furnishing kitchens.

A delegation from the Teachers' college of New York recently spent an afternoon as guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Barnard and were surprised and pleased by the demonstrations in the use of alcohol in housekeeping. Mr. Barnard is a believer in the future of decau-terized alcohol and has done much experimenting with it.

POLAR AUTO RACE ENTRY.

Facts About the American Contesting
Car and Its Drivers.

The Thomas car, which is the only American contestant in the New York to Paris automobile race, is to all interests and purposes the best of the regular stock car, with the exception that certain parts have been strenghtened for the long journey, says the New York Times. It weighs 2,000 pounds and, with the crew and accessories of the trip, will total about 3,000 pounds. In racing trim the car covers seventy-five miles an hour. With all the necessary paraphernalia it is capable of making fifty-eight miles. It is not expected that this rate of speed will be maintained, but Montague Butters, one of its drivers, expects to average about thirty miles an hour as far as Omaha. The speed from this point west will depend entirely upon the condition of the roads.

Roberts will not have charge of the car throughout the entire run. When he himself would be perfectly willing to go right through with the foreign drivers in their trip to Paris by way of Alaska and Siberia, he has been invited to drive the Thomas stock car in the Bialerick cup event in Westchester county, N. Y., on April 24, and after taking the car to Cheyenne he will return to New York to begin practice for the Westchester county contest.

From Cheyenne to San Francisco and for the rest of the trip the car will be driven by Harold S. Brinker, who for the last three years has been the demonstrator for the Thomas cars on the Pacific coast. While Brinker is not well known to eastern motorists, he has done a great deal of hard driving under all sorts of conditions in the far west
and has crossed the Rocky and Sierra Nevada ranges more than once, making the run from San Francisco to Cheyenne in 100 hours and 30 minutes, and from Cheyenne to Chicago and back in 100 hours and 30 minutes.

American motorists and others who are watching the car will be pleased to know the machine is American made in every particular.

"It is an American car even to the magnets," said Roberts. "I will use American tires exclusively and am relying upon the regulation standard
makes of both tires and inner tubes, carrying none of the specially designed tires."

When asked how fast he would travel
Roberts said that no effort would be made at any time to make speed.

The car carried at the start two gasoline tanks holding forty gallons each,
one placed under the front seats and the other in the rear. Upon reaching Chicago a specially built gasoline tank,
in which the four bucket seats are suspended, will be attached to the car.
In the 1905 Vanderbilt cup races, the car will be fitted to a frame
which will hold 125 gallons of gasoline, larger wheels will then be fitted to the car, the thirty-five inch ones with which the car will be equipped at the start being removed and forty inches ones substituted. Besides the regulation tires, Roberts will carry some steel rims. For non-skidding he has developed some rubber grips to be used around the rear tires, which he will quickly removed when their use is no longer required.

To the scales of the car will be attached fourteen foot boards reinforced with metal for use in handling the car over mudholes and ruts. A which is attached to the front of the machine by means of which a block and tackle may be used for pulling the car up steep inclines or assisting its progress in difficult portions of the road.

The car in every way is of standard construction, with a four cylinder sixty horsepower engine. It is of the open touring style, but two passengers will be carried in the rear seats. A wheel shield will extend from the dashboard to the height of the driver's seat, and it will be provided with a removable glass extension, which may be raised to protect the occupants in stormy and windy weather. Two mechanics are with Roberts.

Cut His Visit Short.
The Duke of Wellington once wrote to Dr. Hutton for information as to the scientific requirements of a young officer who had been under his instruction.
The doctor thought he could not do less than answer the question verbally and made an appointment accordingly.
Directly Wellington saw him he said: "I am obliged to you, doctor, for the trouble you are taking. Is it fit for the post?"
Clearing his throat, Dr. Hutton began: "No man more so, my lord. I can't."
"That's quite sufficient," said Wellington. "I know how valuable your time is. Mine just now is equally so.
I will not detain you any longer. Good mornin'!"

Chamberlain's Has The Preference.

Mr. Fred C. Hamrah, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference." For sale by Severs Drug Co.

Sketch Of Mr. Severs' Life.

The subject of this sketch, Jas. J.
Severs, was born in Louisville, Ky., Jan.
8, 1841 and departed this life Mar. 31,
1908 being 67 years, 2 months and 23
days old. He was married to Fannie B. Ricketts April 23, 1874. Of this union were born eight children, two of whom died in early childhood. He joined the order of Free Masons early in life and was a man among men,
holding sacred the principles of justice and honor—a heritage bequeathed to his children.

Mr. Severs was the son of Jacob P.
Severs who was born in Knox Co., Tenn.
and came to Kentucky in early life.
He was married to Mary E. Hurley who was a member of the illustrious Hardin family that has made Kentucky famous in legal annals. He engaged in the mercantile business in this county and later in life retired to his farm near Union Star. He was an active member of the M. E. Church South and a man of prayer. May the suddenness of our brother's departure from family and friends be an admonition to teach us:
Be ye also ready.

Bro. Roberts read the burial service, prayed and made a very appropriate address. "Our loved ones are gathering home."

DISTRICT JUDGE U. S. COURT

Recommends Pe-ru-na as an Invigorating Tonic.

Judge John W. Bixler,
formerly United States Circuit Judge, now United States District Judge, of Kansas, endorses Peruna.

JUDGE JOHN W. BIXLER.
1750 P. STREET.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Pe-ru-na Testimonials.

When any man or woman, out of pure gratitude, writes us a letter, commenting upon the benefits he has received from the use of Peruna, when he does this without any solicitation or remuneration of any sort, and furnishes us a recent photograph, so that his identity and responsibility in the matter is beyond question, then do we consider a testimonial available for our advertising purposes.

We are at the present time publishing many hundreds of testimonials.
We give the name and address in full of each one of these people.

We have no use for, nor would we publish for any sum of money, a fraudulent testimonial. To do such a thing would be dishonorable from a moral standpoint, and commercial suicide from a business standpoint.

Tonic and Appetizer.
W. H. Parsons is ex-State Senator and ex-Special Judge of the Supreme Court of Texas, also Brigadier General in Confederate Army. In a recent letter from 925 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C., this prominent gentleman says:

"Upon the recommendation of personal friends and many strong testimonials of the efficacy of Peruna in the treatment of the numerous symptoms of the grip, with which I have been affected for four months past, I have been induced to undergo a treatment of this justly celebrated formula.

"I feel a decided change for the better
after using it only one week. It is especially good in toning up the stomach,
and has a decided effect upon my appetite. I therefore feel much encouraged that I am on the road to complete restoration.

Speech of Ben F. Davis in Resigning the Presidency of the Colored Fairbanks Club.

Gentlemen of the Fairbanks Club:
After carefully studying the qualifications of the presidential candidates, I have come to the conclusion that the Hon. William H. Taft, of Ohio, is the best equipped man in the United States to be our next standard bearer. He has made good in any position that he has been called to filled.

As Judge of the United States Court of Appeals, he made a national reputation by his knowledge of law and when our martyred president, Wm. McKinley was looking all over the United States to find a man to send to the Philippines to bring those half-savage word to understand the meaning of the tribes
liberty, he selected Taft, and how wel-

he accomplished the task is a matter of history; and again in Cuba and the Panama canal he has been equally successful.

I am sorry indeed that the Brownsville affair was ever mentioned by the Club. I think it one of the most backward steps that the colored race ever attempted. We should, as a race, try our utmost to suppress all lawlessness that is committed by the lower class of our race.

For the above reason I declare myself for Wm. H. Taft and beg all my colored brothers and friends to do likewise.

Highland Glenworth

No. 3196

American Saddle Horse Breeders Association

s a Blood Bay stallion 16 hands high, black points, foaled 1902, sired by Highland Denmark 730, (Gay's) he by Black Squirrel 58, by Black Eagle, 1 y King William, etc. First dam Annette Lee, 1385, by Black Squirrel, second dam
Nancy Lee, 476, by Monte Cristo, 50, third dam Nannie Garrett, 472, by Dare Akin, 775, fourth dam Nannie by Maj. Breckinridge, fifth dam by McDonald, he Scotts Highlander, etc., etc. For Highland Glenworth we have only to say that he is the highest styled, truest acting, finest finished and richest bred saddle stallion money would buy. Horsemen familiar with Highland Denmark, Monte Cristo, Black Squirrel and Chester Dare know that each was the champion of the ring and also of the stud each in his day. No other stallion, living or dead, can claim all these great horses for lenial sires, and Highland Glen-worth's dam, grand dam and great grand dam were all noted mares—productions from mating by the shrewdest horsemen ever known to Kentucky.
It is no surprise that Highland Glenworth is one of the leading sires in the country as nothing but the hottest blood courses his veins and no cold cross anywhere in his pedigree to crop out in a colt.

We want to farm a few of the best mares in Breckinridge county to breed to Highland Glenworth and will be glad to negotiate with owners of High classed brood mares.
See us as early as possible. SEASON FEE $15. Will also stand at same time and place as Sporting Boy and Jack John.
